WON'T GIVE IN ON PRINCIPLES, MARSHALL SAYS

Tells Reds U. S. Will Not Barter in Peoples' Rights For Sake of Peace

PARIS, Sept. 23 (AP)—Secretary of State George C. Marshall told Russia today that the United States will not compromise on principles to win peace.

He also warned the Soviet Union that American patience must not be misunderstood for weakness. That would be a tragic error, he said.

The calm-voiced secretary did not mention Russia by name in his American policy declaration to the United Nations general assembly. But delegates who listened carefully agreed he was talking directly to the Soviet Union and her satellites.

Marshall was preceded only by the Philippines in the assembly's opening general debate. Informed sources said he requested that early spot months ago so there would be no mistake about the United States policy in the current meeting of the "world parliament."

THE SOVIET SPHERE apparently understood Marshall's message. Poland quickly followed with a blistering attack on alleged American imperialism—principally the European Recovery program.

Marshall said the United States will not "compromise the essential principles" or "barter away the rights and freedom of other peoples."

He pulled no surprises like the past year's demand for creation of the little assembly. He did urge continuation of the assembly for another year, opened the door to the Russian-led minority to co-operate, and declared that there are no mechanical majorities as Russia has charged.

Berlin was dragged into the assembly by indirect references from the start. Polish Foreign Minister Zygmunt Modzelewski assailed efforts of the Western powers to supply Berlin by air, declaring that "no justification can be found for such economic nonsense as the supply of goods to Berlin by air."

IN A SPEECH WHICH drew immediate favorable comment from non-Communist delegates, Marshall carefully laid down the American position on major problems before the assembly and closed with these words:

"The United Nations has sought to promote the free exchange of ideas on a basis of full reciprocity. The effort is of the greatest political importance. Any government which by deliberate action cuts itself and its people off from the rest of the world becomes incapable of understanding the problems and policies of other governments and other peoples. It would be a tragic error if, because of such misunderstanding, the

Convicts Hitch Ride With Chief After Escape

MANHEIM, Sept. 23 (P)—Two convicts who escaped from Lancaster County prison by scaling a 30-foot wall, were captured in a field near Manheim after a shot-punctuated chase.

But not before they had hitchhiked a ride with H. H. Brock, Manheim police chief and, pressing a "gun" in his back, told him where to take them. It was learned later, the "gun" was a finger.

The convicts—Harry S. Groff, Jr., 21, Paradise, and Andrew Rudyak, Lykens—escaped shortly before dawn yesterday by using a 20-foot pipe they had taken from the prison workshop.

THE FUGITIVES TOLD police after their capture that they hid for hours across street from the Lancaster jail on the campus of the Stevens Industrial school and made their way through the town after midnight, hitching their ride with Brock.

A search today was concentrated in a wooded area near Manheim. Police spotted the men and fired five shots when they refused to halt. One shot nicked Groff on the hand but he was not hurt seriously.

Both were serving short terms at the prison.

'Where to Go?' They Ask Pottstown for an Answer

To the Editor:
Please Pottstown give people a break. Provide homes for moderate income folks like we Penn Villagers.

Our ancestors the Pilgrims built log cabins to live in. Give us land and we will build.

"Open up your hearts, big guys" is the heart-rending plea of six-year-old Robert K. Forsythe Jr., of 25 Myrtle street, Penn Village, as his mother pens the words in a letter to The Mercury. Mrs. Forsythe wrote the letter in appeal for community action in providing homes for the 65 Penn Village families facing eviction. Eleanor Jane S. watches as her mother writes. Text of the letter appears in Readers Say on Page Four.

Key Spy Witness Threatened With Libel Suit by Accused

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23 (AP)—Elizabeth T. Bentley, whose testimony about a war-time Russian spy ring touched off the current series of Congressional investigations, was threatened with a libel suit today by one of the men she accused.

William W. Remington, who is on suspension from the Commerce department awaiting the outcome of a loyalty inquiry, demanded that Miss Bentley make "a satisfactory public retraction" of her charges against him.

"If one is not forthcoming by said amount of damages to be sought would be a very substantial sum."

OTHER DEVELOPMENTS in the double-barreled investigation being conducted by House and Senate committees included:

1. Senator Ferguson (R-Mich.) charged that his investigation had been "thwarted" by President Truman and Attorney General Clark. He said FBI Chief J. Edgar Hoover was denied permission to tell the senators what he knows about foreign espionage in the United States.

2. Clark denied that he had ever refused Hoover permission to testify, and said the senator "deliberately mis-states the facts" in an effort to win support in his race for re-election.

3. Rep. McDowell (R-Pa.) said he would recommend to the House un-American activities committee tomorrow that two unnamed atomic scientists and a Communist operative be indicted on espionage charges.

4. Rep. Hebert (D-La.), a member of the same House committee, said the group had turned up no evidence "at all" of any spying here since the war.

Miss Bentley, confessed former courier for a Russian espionage ring she said operated between Washington and New York, named Remington as one (Continued on Page Fifteen)

Water Rate Discount Still Effective; Headline Erred

A misleading headline in The Mercury yesterday made it appear that the borough of Pottstown had eliminated discounts on water bills.

The headline said: "No Discount Plan Adopted to Increase Water Revenue."

The word "adopted" was used in a misleading way.

J. M. Creswell, chairman of the Pottstown borough committee, pointed out that the voiding of the discount had not been adopted. It had been discussed, he said, and may be adopted. But the action had not taken place.

Creswell said the story which chronicled the committee's efforts to obtain more revenue was factual.

"My quarrel is with the word 'adopted,'" he said.

The Mercury regrets if any readers assumed that the action already had taken place. The error was unintentional.

Penn Villagers Hope For Evictions Delay

DEWEY SAYS U. S. MUST BUILD UP ATOMIC FORCE

Urges More Production Of Deadly Weapons Until Peace Is Secure

PHOENIX, Ariz., Sept. 23 (AP)—Presidential nominee Thomas E. Dewey declared tonight America must go on producing atomic weapons until the peace of the world is secure.

Backing that policy, "to the hilt" the Republican candidate said that to do otherwise would "invite disaster."

He told his cheering audience of 14,000 persons at Montgomery stadium "we are determined that the great new force (atomic energy) be channeled into an instrument of peace—not war."

The New York governor said eventually the development of atomic energy should be handed over mainly to private industry—but not before the peace has been won.

IN HIS FOURTH MAJOR campaign address, Dewey said that so far "our best efforts" to harness atomic energy for peace have been blocked "by the repeated vetoes of the Soviet Union" in the United Nations.

After a round of rear platform talks on his way through the state from Albuquerque, N. M., the New York governor said: "You can be very sure that many millions of freedom loving, peace seeking people of the world are giving thanks tonight that the atomic secret for the present at least is America's secret."

He said that it will remain America's secret. These millions of people know that these atomic weapons in our hands are in safe hands. They know that as long as this secret is our secret it will be a powerful restraint upon the aggression of others."

SPEAKING ONLY a few hundred miles from Alamogordo, N. M., where the first atomic bomb was touched off, Dewey said the government monopoly in the development of atomic energy "must be maintained at all costs in those respects in which the monopoly is necessary to safeguard the secret and to develop its military uses, but with this precaution for our security it is perfectly clear that atomic progress cannot be left exclusively

LIBERALS URGED TO 'SAVE VOTES'

Truman Calls for Unison; Tells Group Not to Waste Ballots on Third Party

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 23 (P)—President Truman cried out to American liberals tonight to "unite" and not toss votes away on a "powerless" third party he said "the Communists are guiding and using."

"This," the President said "is a championship fight. I do not believe anybody is going to win this fight by running away from the record or ducking the issues."

To liberals leaning toward Henry A. Wallace's third party, Mr. Truman called out:

"Think again."

"This is the hour for the liberal forces of America to unite," he said. "We have hopes to fulfill and goals to attain. Together we can rout the forces of reaction once again."

THE CHIEF EXECUTIVE'S attempt to cut away Wallace's following came in a major campaign address to a Los Angeles crowd gathered in Gilmore stadium. Politicians generally have agreed that a heavy vote for Wallace would damage the Democrats worse than the Republicans.

But the President said the underlying struggle in the campaign is between Democrats and (Continued on Page Fifteen)

First Frost of Season Reported in Rural Areas

It was as chilly as a penguin's tail feathers yesterday morning.

As the mercury shrank to 44 for the second day in a row, light frost, the first of the season, was reported in rural areas.

There will be little change in temperature over the next two days, the weatherman predicted, also forecasting that today's clouds will melt away tomorrow.

Dana said the present freight rates had "failed after a trial period to produce adequate revenue despite the heavy volume of traffic that is being handled."

Exceptions to the proposed eight percent rate increase will be as follows, Dana said:

The carriers' petition filed with the commission Aug. 26 to raise the rates on coal and coke in all territories will be amended to ask an additional five cents a net ton and six cents a gross ton.

Similarly, the proposed increase on iron ore in eastern and southern territories will be raised five cents a ton, net or gross, under the plan.

On iron ore in the western territory, the proposed increase is 25 cents per net or gross ton, except to the head of the lakes for water shipment beyond. No increase is proposed in dumping charges.

Butter Drops In Price to Year's Low

Butter prices dropped five, six, and seven-cents in Pottstown chain stores yesterday as a result of declining wholesale prices in Chicago and New York.

The first substantial drop in butter prices in more than a month and a half, the cuts brought top quality butter to 79, 80 and 81 cents per pound.

Pottstown housewives were quick to notice that the 79 cent figure was the lowest price asked for butter since the first of the year. Sales boomed in all chain stores as a result of prominent displays.

First indications of a price cut came in New York the past Tuesday when butter fell two cents. The drop was followed the next day by another four cent slash.

Spokesmen for the wholesale markets said the price cuts came about when a plentiful supply met a poor demand. The wholesale drops were reflected in retail outlets almost at once.

BAND TO FOREGO GRID MANEUVERS

Group to Play Tonight At School Tilt Without New Uniforms, Director

The Pottstown Senior High school band will play at tonight's game at Franklin field, but the players will not put on their traditional march and formations.

New uniforms for the band have not arrived, declared Stanley I. Davenport Jr., vice principal of the Senior High school, and the old ones are no longer suitable.

Lester F. C. Smith, elected band director by the Pottstown school board at the Sept. 13 meeting, has not arrived either. It was revealed yesterday.

Smith, who was appointed to succeed Harvey LeRoy Wilson, was his band directing post with the school district of East Lampeter township, Lancaster county.

Local school officials did not know when he would arrive.

WALTER PRICE, a member of the Senior High school band and a Senior, has been rehearsing the group.

Yesterday, Joseph E. Mack, director of the Junior High school band from 1941 to 1943, filled in as director of the Senior High school organization.

He said he would act as temporary director until Smith arrived.

The band will make its first appearance at today's Senior High school assembly.

In yesterday's Mercury it was reported erroneously that the assembly would be held yesterday.

Woman Endangered By Shattered Glass

A rock, probably hurled by some unknown person, shattered the window of a Reading company coach below East Falls yesterday morning, endangering Mrs. William Witmyer, 317 Walnut street, with splinters of broken glass.

After the accident, Mrs. Witmyer noticed some irritation of her eyes and was examined by Dr. Ernest H. Dengler, Pottstown physician, last night. No injury was apparent, he reported.

Mrs. Witmyer was en route to Philadelphia on the 9:30 o'clock train from Pottstown when the incident occurred. Just below East Falls, the rock crashed against the upper part of the window shattering it completely.

Small splinters and bits of broken glass cascaded over her, covering the right side of her hair, face and body.

After being returned to Pottstown from Philadelphia on the first outbound train.

Only the fact that she was relaxing against the seat and had her face averted from the window saved her from serious injury from the flying glass, she believed.

REQUEST MADE BY KOSER TO FEDERAL OFFICE

Extension Until Jan. 1 Sought for 65 Families Ordered to Move Out

An extension of time for 65 Penn Village families facing almost certain eviction may be forthcoming as a result of a request made to the Public Housing administration office in New York City, Edmund J. Koser, executive secretary of the Montgomery County Housing authority, announced yesterday.

If granted, it would mean that evictions at the development would not begin until after New Year's.

Koser said yesterday he was working on the possible extension of time to afford the families affected an opportunity to search for new homes.

The request includes an extension of the actual eviction notices from a 30 day notice to a possible 60 or 90 day notice.

A previous request made by Koser asked the housing administration for permission to raise the maximum income levels allowable for continued occupancy in the development.

It would keep roughly 40 percent of the 65 families eligible for residence in Penn Village, but would not affect the income requirements necessary for admittance to the units.

ACTION BY THE New York office on both requests still is pending. Koser went on to say, but an inspection of conditions there may be made shortly by a field representative of the administration.

It has been determined now that seven families per month will be asked to leave Penn Village when the removals begin. Those with the highest incomes will be asked to leave first and the removals will continue on a graduated income scale.

According to the schedules approved in May, 1947, the income limits permissible for Penn Villagers range from $35 weekly for a childless couple to $46 weekly for a couple with five or more youngsters.

Before May, 1947, the limits were $30 and $40, respectively.

If approved, the new schedules will affect only those families now living in the village. Newcomers (Continued on Page Fifteen)

Hanover St. Bridge To Be Closed for Painting Next Week

The Hanover street bridge between Pottstown and South Pottstown will be closed to traffic while it is being painted from Monday through Thursday of next week.

C. W. Yetter, assistant maintenance superintendent of the State Department of Highways, yesterday suggested the following detours:

Passenger cars and light trucks will proceed down South Keim street to the bridge leading to Kenilworth and Route 63.

Trucks 12 feet high or greater will proceed along Water street to the Kenilworth bridge.

The second route for larger trucks has been proposed. It was explained, because the South Keim street underpass has insufficient clearance.

The south end of Keim street will be marked by the borough to direct motorists over the Kenilworth bridge.

Recently, an undercoating of paint was applied to the Hanover street bridge. At that time, the bridge was open to one lane of traffic only.

Appeals Court Says Qualified Unions Can Insist on Pension Plan Bargaining

CHICAGO, Sept. 23 (AP)—The U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals held today that qualified unions can require employers to bargain with them about pensions.

The court also upheld the constitutionality of a provision of the Taft-Hartley law requiring union officials to sign affidavits that they are not Communists.

The ruling sustained a National Labor Relations board order that the Inland Steel company must discuss pensions with the CIO United Steelworkers—if union officers sign non-Communist affidavits.

IF UPHOLD BY THE U. S. Supreme court, lawyers said, the ruling will:

1. Bring the entire subject of pension or retirement plans within the realm of collective bargaining. The order will apply to all unionized companies in interstate commerce—whether or not a pension plan now exists. Employers will have to consult the recognized bargaining agent before changing the existing pension program.

2. Deprive unions of the services of the National Labor Relations board in collective bargaining elections and other matters unless union officials sign non-Communist affidavits.

Officials of several big unions, including the CIO United Steelworkers, the United Mine Workers and the CIO Longshoremen, have refused to sign non-Communist affidavits.

The court agreed unanimously on the pension issue but split 2-1 on the legality of the non-Communist oath requirement.

The company said it would appeal.

THE COURT HELD that pensions fell into the category of "other conditions of employment." As a condition of employment, the court said, it is a fit subject for collective bargaining.

"We are convinced that the language employed by Congress considered in connection with the purpose of the (National Labor Relations) act so clearly includes a retirement and pension plan as to leave little if any room for construction," the majority opinion held.

"While the company has demonstrated a reasonable argument can be made that the benefits flowing from such a plan are not 'wages,' we think the better and more logical argument is on the other side and certainly there is in our opinion no sound basis for an argument that such a plan is not clearly included in the phrase, 'other conditions of employment.'"

The judges are Otto Kerner,

Sherman Minton and J. Earl Major. In the majority opinion on the non-Communist requirement, Kerner said:

"It seems to me that it was rational for Congress to conclude that members of the Communist party or persons affiliated with such party who believe in and teach the overthrow of the United States government by force or by any illegal or unconstitutional methods were much more likely than others to misuse the powers which inhere in union office.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 24, 1948

Often do the spirits of great events stride on before the events, and in today already walks tomorrow—Coleridge.

Water Bureau Groans

DARK days have come upon Pottstown, borough's water bureau.

Officials have found that they can't pay off the mortgage, can't pay the interest, can't make many and costly improvements and still make money.

They feel a little chagrined that they cannot be miracle men. But few persons expected them to be magicians.

The old Pottstown Gas and Water company was able to show a net income of $75,000 a year.

The new administrators of the water company—now owned by the borough—can do as well. But out of that sum they've got to pay $20,000 in interest, and they've got to practically rebuild the system.

What to do?

They've thought of many angles. They've debated many revenue-raising means.

One method to get badly needed funds is to eliminate the 10 percent discount they've been giving customers. That would cost the average homeowner only a few dollars a year, yet would give the borough $14,000 or more. With that Pottstown could extend water services, could improve the system.

The second method to get funds would be to borrow. Taxpayers would be saddled with this cost, although it might be hidden in higher taxes.

Thus the water committee is on the horns of a dilemma. No matter what its course, it'll be the taxpayer who'll pay.

But there's one consolation. In 30 years the borough will own the water company!

Tax-and-Debt-Burdens

IF THE total taxes levied in the United States were paid equally by each man, woman and child in the nation, the bill would have been $313 for each person, in 1946. It has decreased a bit since the Republican Congress took over, but it is still high.

This 1948 per capita tax figure for the United States led all other nations, including Russia, which was second with $297 for each person.

The United Kingdom was third, with $279 per capita tax, then came Canada with $193. In 1939, the per capita tax burden in the United States was $43, while Russia then led all countries with $129. The United Kingdom was second with $97.

So that to finance the war, the United States tax burden increased by more than seven times while Russia's tax burden during the war slightly more than doubled and England's tripled.

The Federal debt burden in dollars for every man, woman and child in the United States increased from $351 in 1939 to $1830 in 1946.

In the United Kingdom, the debt burden increased from $667 per capita in 1939 to $2095 in 1946, according to figures of the National Advisory Council of International Monetary and Financial Problems.

Russia's per capita debt burden went from $34 in 1939 to $137 in 1946.

The above figures were gathered and compiled for the Senate Finance Committee by the Department of State, Treasury and Commerce, the Federal Reserve System, the Export-Import Bank and the Securities and Exchange Commission, it is reported by the Institute of Life Insurance.

A Huzza for Maria Telkes

A WOMAN after our own heart is Maria Telkes, a scientist on the Massachusetts Institute of Technology staff. Her studies cause her to believe that the sun's heat can be stored up in collectors and used to heat a house in winter.

A run-of-mine person would have passed off the idea as an impractical dream, or written a cautious report about it, or composed a glowing prospectus and tried to sell it to someone else. Dr. Telkes spent $3000 to install a heat collector on the roof of her new house, and if it doesn't pan out, she guesses she'll "just freeze to death."

Maria Telkes is backing her idea with her own money and own skin. If the world's presidencies and chancelleries and bureaucracies, military staffs and legislatures were staffed with people like that, what a bright, brave, new world it would really be!

Grampaw Oakley

Editor, The Mercury,
Dear Sir: "Brother,"

Wal, I see by the papers where a tipsy midwesterner-motorist got a half dozen tickets for traffic violations in one trip. He hit the japper. Washington statistics show miners' wages have gone up 150 percent since 1933. That goes to show what a man can do if he digs in.

And say: The Pottstown water bureau is debating increased water tariffs. They'll drive us all back to the bar-room yet!

Hopin' you air the same,

'Give Us Homes to Live In'...A Mother's Plea

Penn Villagers' Plight

To the Editor: Please Pottstown, give people a break.

Provide homes for moderate income folks like we Penn Villagers. We want to give our houses to "low-income" people who do need these homes. The really high income folks have homes, but how about us? Where can we go?

Most of us are young people who were married in tough years and, plus having youngsters and a start in life to make, we haven't been able to accumulate as much as is required to buy these homes that are for sale.

So why not provide homes for us within the bracket we can afford which is $40 to $44 a month.

Either build to rent or buy. You surely will get your money out of it in time. You have the capital—we have dreams and hopes. So open your heart, big guys.

Our ancestors, the Pilgrims, built log cabins-to-live-in—Give-us-land-and we will build ours, too. This is a good country, our America. So come on, Pottstown, show your people this spot is swell, too. Give your people an opportunity. Give us homes to live in.

Not Fully Appreciated

To the Editor: It seems to me that G. H. C. ("Nurses' Wages and Service," Readers Say, Sept. 21) is making a very broad statement, when he says there were times when he would have paid $5 for a smile from a nurse. If I were wealthy I might make a similar statement—it's worth $5 to see some patients smile.

Even though few people realize it, nurses are still human beings. There are times when none of us feel like smiling. It appears that G. H. C. would be one of the first to complain, if a nurse did

WASHINGTON

No Economic Depression Seen for Several Years

By RAY TUCKER

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23 — Government and private economic experts are generally agreed that the United States faces no severe depression or even a serious slump for several years, despite bumper crops, increasing production, a growing sales resistance, a spotty price situation and unsettled conditions abroad.

In order of their importance and immediate impact on the average American, they look for the following developments:

1. Continued inflationary times for possibly six months, with no real drop in price levels, especially meat, until next Spring for hogs and next Fall for beef. Poultry and dairy stuff may decline within a few months, although the Thanksgiving and Christmas holiday season may give them temporary artificial support.

2. The return of a buyers' market in such lines as cottons, certain wearing apparel, shoes, house furnishings, radios, stoves, refrigerators. Factory-to-store pipelines are filling up, inventories are mounting, and sales are declining in some of these fields.

NEEDS: 3. Wages will remain at present levels, but there should be no fourth round of increases as the cost of living goes down and gives more value to the pay envelope.

4. Farm income on major crops is guaranteed at 90 percent of parity through 1949, and greater volume (wheat, corn, cotton etc.) will compensate partially for lower prices per unit.

5. The still unsatisfied demand for steel, oil, coal, automobiles, houses, heavy machinery and factory expansion furnishes a foundation of prosperity solid enough to withstand price disturbances and other pressures that brought on the 1920-1922 dip after World War I. It is generally believed that it will require at least two years to meet most of these needs.

SATISFACTORY: 6. Marshall Plan and rearmament expenditures, which may total $75,000,000,000 in the next five years, constitute further reinforcement for current and prospective good times, virtually full employment, and an even better balance between the individual's income and outgo.

7. If the Marshall Plan should rehabilitate Europe and revive world commerce, that would be another and more normal factor in bolstering and maintaining the American economy.

Thus, barring a war, it is the consensus that the United States may have from five to ten years of satisfactory economic conditions, although some shorten that period to five.

As to what will happen when the customers' wants are filled, and the replacement market cannot absorb the output of an increasingly efficient industrial and agricultural plan, nobody ventures a guess because there are so many unforeseeables.

Politically, such an outlook augurs well for Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, provided he is elected in November. No bust-up is looked for during what may be his first term in the White House, a fact which might insure his re-election.

STORMS: The experts at the Federal Reserve board, around the White House and at the Treasury obviously figure that the next 12 months will be vital and difficult in determining our chances to weather inflationary storms so dangerous that they could darken the long-time outlook.

That is the reason for the controversy-provoking decisions to reinstate consumer credit regulations, to hike the interest rates on certain Treasury issues, and to force member banks to lay aside an additional $3,500,000,000 in cash against deposits.

Bethel or Bethany?

To the Editor: In the Sept. 18 issue of The Mercury you ask, in question No. 3 of "How's Your Mind?"—in what town did the Biblical family of Mary, Martha and Lazarus live? Answer: Bethel.

If you will look in your Bible and read John 11:1, you will read this: "Now a certain man was sick named Lazarus, of Bethany, the town of Mary and her sister, Martha."

I think it would be wise to correct the mistake.

A Hospital—Not the Ritz

To the Editor: I'm sick of all this griping about nurses and the service in hospitals. After all, what do these people expect—service like in the Ritz for what they pay in the hospital when they are also getting special care like you couldn't even get at the Ritz?

The reason nurses don't smile all the time is because when you get sick you have to go to a hospital. If you go to the Ritz and they don't smile at you; you can always go to some other hotel.

Anyway, if you faced as much blood and pain and disease and heartbreak in a day as the average nurse you probably wouldn't be cracking your face open every minute smiling either.

What I say is: Thank God we got nurses at all. Thank God there's enough girls who will me up what the nurse has to give up and go into nursing.

Postwar Story
EIGHTEEN MONTHS ago, Jackie Kalk and I made a tour of Veterans administration hospitals in the East and South.

In the McGuire hospital in Richmond we were taken into a ward where one of the patients was a handsome young quadriplegic, paralyzed from the neck down. He couldn't have been more than 20 or 22 years old.

He lay on his back on a low table, puffing a cigarette. Behind him a woman sat patiently rising every once in a while to flick the ashes from his cigarette. His image, she was clearly his mother.

The boy seemed so resigned, so hopeless, that Jackie and I felt uncomfortable cavorting so zanily in the presence of such a tragedy. But we finished our show and moved on toward another ward.

His mother followed us to the hall, tears in her eyes.

"I've been here with my son every day for two years," she told us. "You've made him smile for the first time in all that time. Thank you so much."

JACKIE AND I moved on to other hospitals and the incident passed out of my mind till one day a few weeks ago.

The Worry Clinic

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

HARRY N., 41, lived in our neighborhood when our children were very young. "Dr. Crane, I wish I had more money to spend," he moaned one day. "My Dad gives me an allowance of 75 cents per week, but that doesn't go very far."

"If only I could get a job, I'd be able to earn a lot of money, but all the newspaper routes are taken, and I have to go to school during the day."

"I wish my Dad would give me more, but I realize he doesn't earn very much, so I suppose I shouldn't blame him, but I suppose I shouldn't blame him, but I suppose I shouldn't blame him."

"Dr. Crane, have you any work you want done, or how would you suggest I earn some money?"

HARRY is like many older men who would like to have a job, but if work is not served them on a platter they feel helpless.

One of the scarcest but highest paid talents in America, is a resourcefulness. Even in an economic depression there is a great deal of work which could be done at a fair price, if the worker and employer were only brought together.

Let me cite an example from my own home. Time and again my wife has wanted to hire somebody to wash our windows, but she didn't know whom to get. And she hesitated to call an employment agency to send a man the ten miles out to our home for a mere four or five hours work.

Unless a professional employment agency or personnel director offers people work, they seem unable to evolve a job from the raw material at hand.

I would gladly have let Harry wash my car once per week, had he asked for the task. The charges range all the way from 75 cents to $1.00 here in Chicago for such a job.

At that same time, I inquired about the price of simonizing my car. The garage wanted $9.50.

I would gladly have farmed out this job to Harry, had he suggested his services in this regard and shown me by previous work that he was proficient and reliable. At that same time, we had five children, three of whom were not yet of school age. We'd gladly have paid a high school girl if she'd taken the children for a daily walk or to the beach, which is only two blocks away.

But in all these years, not one girl has ever solicited such "supervised play" business from me.

So we finally sent the two older boys to a private nursery school just to get them into a play group. It cost us from $25 to $50 per month tuition. A Ladies Aid group could have run such a school and have had our $50 per month for their church.

'STILL IN THERE, PITCHIN'!

Hollywood

By JAMES STEWART

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 23—As a dips (that's Pennsylvania Dutch for small child) I took a fantastic interest in fire engines. This was not unusual.

I became fanatical about the hero who steered the trailer around the corner like a madman when the big red devil was going 50 per. My interest was so acute that I even investigated and discovered this colorful character to have an impressive title. He was called the tillerman. None of this was unusual, either.

At the ripe center of my life and career I have suddenly become interested in fire engines again. This is unusual.

To be more explicit I should report that I'm really interested in a new type of tillerman. The engine he operates doesn't go fast and it doesn't ring bells and it's not painted red. But, oh, brother, it's twice as fantastic.

This contraption weighs over a ton, rolls noiselessly on an electric motor, has a long steel crane on the end of which sits a big technicolor camera blimp, is called a camera boom and is operated by a man named Morris.

Morris doesn't "wake up screaming" now but he used to. This is because Morris is a head grip. In a movie factory a head grip is a boss man over a laboring gang. This is not enough to make a man shout in his dreams except in the case of Morris Rosen when he became "tillerman" on "Rope."

But Hitch came along and said, "Boys, how long is a reel? Ten minutes? Great! Well shoot each scene until there isn't any more film in the camera, do it ten times and we'll have a revolutionary movie—ten reels without a cut."

That's where Morris came in. You can't shoot one scene for ten minutes in the same place with the same actors and expect the audience to remain in the theater. Hitchcock made sliding walls and said to Morris, "Brother Rosen, your job will be to get this camera boom in and out of every room of the apartment going from clumps to long shots of the actors without ever stopping during each ten minutes take."

I'm afraid I cost Warner Bros. and Transatlantic Pictures a lot more money in blowups than Morris did while shooting this little number. I got so fascinated watching him whip that camera boom around the stage that a couple of times I forgot to act and completely fooled one of Mr. H's revolutionary ten-minute takes.

IT ALL HAPPENED because Alfred Hitchcock, the director who is often called "the master of suspense," decided also to become the master of how-to-do-things-the-hard-way department. For years Hitchcock and every other director in town was satisfied to shoot pictures a minute at a time.

But Hitch came along and said, "Boys, how long is a reel? Ten minutes? Great! Well shoot each scene until there isn't any more film in the camera, do it ten times and we'll have a revolutionary movie—ten reels without a cut."

That's where Morris came in. You can't shoot one scene for ten minutes in the same place with the same actors and expect the audience to remain in the theater. ALL AROUND THE TOWN

Indian Windfall... Football Guess...

STRIKING OIL!—"Wake up, you're the king and I'm the queen," Mrs. Michael Gresko, Pottstown RD 1, said to her husband the other morning. "Go back to your pipe dreams," he replied, "I'm going to plow. Accompanied by such humorous byplay, work on the Gresko farm came close to a standstill while they wondered whether the strange stones found in their tomato field would compensate them for the loss of the tomato crop that was hit by the blight. Now that a University of Pennsylvania scientist has said the flint-like stones are worth about $1000, the Greskos are happy about the whole thing. But there were times when they wondered if being a treasure-finder was such a good idea..."

THEIR PRIZE headaches came from free-lance fortune hunters who wanted to make deals for the Indian relics. One man, who telephoned the news he once had worked for the Smithsonian institute, appeared in person: "He wouldn't tell me his name," Mrs. Gresko said afterward. "He had a car with a Florida license and looked like an Indian himself. He told me he had a machine in the back of his car that would detect metal or valuable rocks. When I asked him why he came so late, he said he didn't like crowds and, anyway, it was better digging at night." Mrs. Gresko refused to let him test this theory.

GRESKO'S biggest troubles came from a collector who tried to get the stones with a fluctuating-price attack. Gresko told the man that as far as he was concerned, the relics were just so many plow stones, but he wasn't selling them—that was up to the missus. The collector persisted, and finally Gresko said: "Look, first you offer me $1000 for them; next you tell me I can't get $100 for them. Then when I tell you I'm going to plow up the field, you tell me I can't do it because I have a fortune on my hands. What do you think it is, brother?" After this man's hasty departure, Gresko commented, "I may look like a farmer, but I'm not his kind of a farmer." The Frick's Locks couple also has learned of the taking ways of some collectors. "I haven't sold any," Mrs. Gresko said sadly, "and haven't given more than two or three away. But every day the basket seems to be getting smaller."

ANNUAL PREDICTION!—If you're doing any betting on the Pottstown High school football team this year, don't wager PHS will win more than five games. Guessin' Gus says you're out on a limb if you go that far. Suiter bet is that the team will win three. Prediction: Win 3; Lose 5; Tie 1. Guessin' Gus hasn't been far wrong in the past three years. His 1945 prediction of only three wins held. In 1946 he predicted seven wins, while the team came through with eight. Fast year he said "three wins, maybe four." The PHS record was three wins, five defeats and one tie.

MOVING—"Thousands" of persons came to Brookside Homes to inspect the new housing development on Washington street, between Wilson and Prospect streets, Earl M. Kersterette, one of the builders, said yesterday. And they're going like hotcakes. Of the 16 homes completed, 35 already have been sold. GIVE AWAY DEPT.—Good watchdog (police, and chow mixed) will be given to first caller at Leonard Rabb, Kennelworth... Pottstown Army Recruits, Michael B. Kovach, 250 Walnut street, and Thomas Ewanick, 1 West Fifth street, have completed their basic training at Ft. Dix, N. J.

YOUR HEALTH

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M. D.

OSTEOMYELITIS or infection of the bone has always been notoriously stubborn and difficult to treat. Children afflicted in this way were particularly to be pitied. Many a little victim has, in the past, spent as much as a year in the hospital without being completely healed, even after numerous, painful operations. All too frequently, the slow fire of the infection destroyed so much bone that the child was condemned to limp through life with one leg shorter than the other.

Today, penicillin and other germ-fighting drugs have revolutionized the treatment of this dread disorder, making healing speedier and much more sure.

In the plan of treatment used at the Mayo Clinic by Dr. Frederick M. Graham and his co-workers, the main attack on the disease is still surgical and involves cutting away of the infected bone, but the use of penicillin and other drugs has made all the difference in the success of the operation and the rate of healing.

Penicillin is given for from three to seven days before the operation. In some cases sulfathiazole is also given and other measures used to build up the patient. These include the injection of whole blood into a vein if the patient is suffering from anemia.

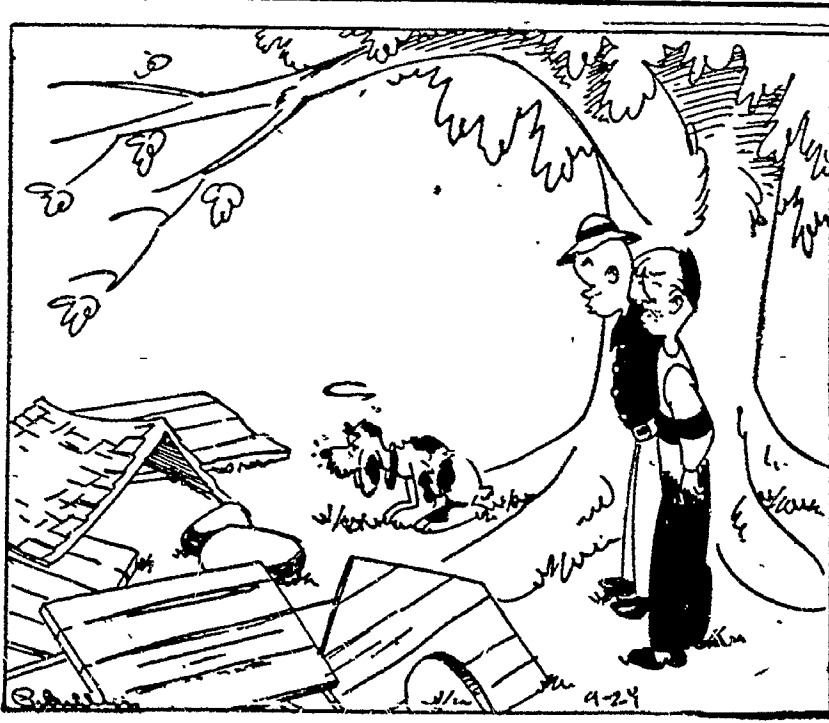

After the infected bone is cut away, the area is washed with a solution of penicillin. In most instances, the wound is closed at the time of operation, though sometimes when infection is severe it may be necessary to provide for the drainage of infected material.

In every case the penicillin is continued following the operation. This type of treatment makes possible a more thorough cutting away of infected bone because danger of spreading the infection is eliminated by the penicillin. Furthermore, the one operative wound may be closed, thus decreasing the number of painful changes of dressings and the length of the patient's stay in the hospital. It would appear, too, that with this method of treatment, the number of cures is greater.

The other form of treatment employed in this condition is what is known as the open method. In such cases, the operative wound is drained. Of course, when drainage is necessary the dressings must be frequently changed and healing may go on at a slower rate.

Reformed Church at Limerick to Combine Homecoming Service, Historical Exhibition

St. James Reformed church, Limerick, will combine a homecoming service and historical exhibition Sunday afternoon at 2:15 o'clock.

About twice the number of the church's active membership of 263 is expected to attend.

During the service Richard Mogel, a member of this year's confirmation class, will present a history of the church which dates to before 1812. Also, a collection of early records, pictures and communion vessels will be on display.

Following the service the Women's guild will give a tea in the church school room.

SPECIAL MUSIC for the worship will include four selections by the choir under the direction of Mrs. Alice Smith. They are "Gloria," from the Twelfth mass, by Mozart; "The Lord's Prayer," by Malotte; "Hark, Hark, My Soul," by Heyser; and "The Heavens Declare the Glory of God," by Ashford.

Mrs. Lorraine Mowrer, soprano, will sing "The Lord is My Shepherd," by Malotte, and Jack Slepikoff, baritone, will sing Riegg's "Homing."

The oldest, youngest and the member coming from greatest distance will be honored at the tea.

Earl Major is general chairman; George Brimmer is in charge of the reception program; and the altar committee, under the direction of Anna Fry, will decorate the altar.

Pastor of the church is the Rev. W. Reed Teitsworth.

Out of Coma

Actress Rita Johnson (above), regained consciousness in St. Vincent's hospital, Hollywood, yesterday after being in a coma for 16 days. A nurse said that Miss Johnson could recognize persons in the room, but still was unable to talk. Her condition was described as "much improved."

House of Lords Defeats Move to Curtail Power

LONDON, Sept. 23 (P)—The House of Lords defeated today a Labor government bill to curtail the power of the peers to delay legislation. The Lords now can block legislation for two years. The government wants to cut it to one year.

The vote, in the strongly conservative upper chamber, was 206 to 34.

Stay of Execution Given Delaware County Slaver

HARRISBURG, Sept. 23 (P)—Governor James H. Duff issued a respite today, staying the execution of Daniel P. Taranow, 24, of New York, until the week of Nov. 8.

Taranow was convicted in Delaware county for the hitch-hike slaying of Francis L. Devon on June 9, 1947.

Taranow's execution had been fixed for next Monday. The respite was issued after the State pardon board earlier in the day continued his appeal for commutation of the death sentence to life imprisonment until its October term.

Slav Congress Head Arrested in Chicago For Red Party Ties

CHICAGO, Sep. 23 (AP)—George Pirinsky, 48, executive secretary of the American-Slav Congress, was arrested today on a warrant charging him, as an alien, with belonging to an organization advocating forcible overthrow of the United States government.

In Washington, the Justice department said the action against Pirinsky is based upon alleged membership in the Communist party, not upon his affiliation with the American-Slav Congress.

The department said that Pirinsky "affiliated with the Communist party after his entry into this country, in violation of the immigration statutes."

PIRINSKY WAS in Chicago for the fourth American-Slav Congress which opens tomorrow in the Stevens hotel. He was arrested in the office of the Immigration and Naturalization bureau and later released under $1000 bond.

Marous N. Neely, the bureau's district enforcement officer, made the arrest on a warrant issued by the commissioner of immigration in Washington. Neely said Pirinsky's lawyer posted bond for him in New York.

The Justice department has been carrying forward a program of arresting aliens with alleged subversive affiliations for deportation for more than a year.

Neely said Pirinsky came to the United States from Bulgaria in 1926.

PIRINSKY HIMSELF declined to give newsmen any information about his personal affairs.

He gave his address as 205 East 42d street, New York City, which he said is the address of the American-Slav Congress.

He said the congress was organized in 1932 to "promote the cultural activities of the American Slavs, and friendship between Americans and Slavs."

The American-Slav Congress was on a list issued the past May 28, of organizations which Attorney General Tom Clark has classified as "totalitarian, Fascist, Communist or subversive."

Pirinsky said 1500 delegates from all parts of the country are expected. The convention scheduled for Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Held

Walter Powell, (above), 22, formerly of Albany, N. Y., is in jail at San Francisco where he is being held for Boston authorities. Police Inspector D. Bradley said Powell admitted buying an automobile in Boston with a fictitious check. Powell is being questioned in connection with the death of Jack Kohn, furniture dealer who was hampered to death in his Boston store, Aug. 19.

In 1890, world production of rubber was only about 3,000 tons.

Stress Analysis Group Meets Here

Four Pottstown industrialists recently attended the inaugural meeting of the newly-formed Delaware Valley chapter of the Society for Experimental Stress Analysis. The meeting was in the Elks' home here.

The dozen members heard several talks relating to determining stresses from any direction on metal parts.

One of the speakers was Herbert N. Maier, of the Doehler-Jarvis Die Casting corporation, who discussed stresses bearing on die casting parts.

On exhibition was a Baldwin Strain Gauge SR-4, so sensitive, Maier said, that it will record the stress on the center of a 2 inch by 2 inch bar of steel if a penny is laid on one end of it.

New French Regime Given U. S. Approval Via Recovery Loan

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23 (AP)—The United States today gave the French government a virtual vote of confidence by letting it have $230,000,000 in recovery funds to put through its anti-inflation program.

The action means American approval of the moderate French government's program and may help it withstand political attacks from left and right, according to U. S. officials who asked not to be named.

The "vote of confidence" angle stems from the source of the money and how it was obtained.

THE UNITED STATES sends France free supplies such as machinery and food under the recovery program.

France may sell these supplies to anyone it wants to, collecting in francs.

The money thus taken in is put in a "counterpart fund" and is destined eventually to be spent in France. The use, however, is subject to approval of the Economic Cooperation Administration.

In this case, France submitted a detailed plan for spending $230,000,000 it had accumulated in the counterpart fund. ECA Administrator Paul Hoffman and the State and Treasury departments studied these plans thoroughly, and today approved them.

It was the first release of counterpart fund money to France, and may make easier subsequent releases, now that America has ruled that current French government plans are "sound."

ITALY, MEANWHILE, also is seeking release of about $60,000,000 from the same general fund. American officials are studying their program.

The Italian program calls for spending a substantial portion of the money for agriculture in Southern Italy, improvements on roads, railways and airports, modernization of some key industries; establishment of schools to train skilled workers, and soil conservation, irrigation and housing.

The $60,000,000 is Italy's current share of the counterpart fund, but may total about $273,000,000 when Italy gets its full recovery allocations for the first two quarters under the Marshall plan.

'Ahead of Time'

An expert with three years of experience in all forms of rocket bomb testing in the U. S., Edward McGee (above) declares that his efforts to get work on the Australian rocket range have failed because he's considered "ahead of his time." A former U. S. Marine, McGee married an Aussie girl and works in a Melbourne factory. The range is a British rocket experimental ground.

Egypt's 13,500 square miles of irrigated land produce two or three crops a year.

Two Motorists in Area Lose Driving Privileges

Two borough area motorists had their licenses revoked or suspended between Sept. 8 and Sept. 10, a report of the Department of Revenue, Bureau of Highway Safety, showed yesterday.

The license of Stanley R. Wassiluk, 515 Vine street, Stowe, was revoked on a charge of operating during the revocation period and operating without the consent of the owner, while that of Richard Manger, of Bally, was suspended for failure to maintain proof of financial responsibility.

During the same period drivers' licenses were restored to J. Ralph Borneman, of Roversford RD 2, and to George C. Myers, of 107 Church street, Birdsboro.

Bandits Kill 2 Police After Robbing Bank

MONTREAL, Sept. 23 (AP)—A pair of bandits shot and killed two policemen and wounded two others today after robbing an east end branch of the Banque Canadienne Nationale.

Police said they arrested the third member of the gang—the driver of the getaway car—a few minutes after the daylight robbery. The name of the man arrested was withheld. Police did not say how much the men took who escaped.

Officers Nelson Paquin, 42, and Paul-Emile Dureanleu, 35, were killed when the bandits came out of the bank, their guns blazing. The two other policemen wounded in the fusillade of shots were taken to a hospital.

The driver of the bandit car raced from the scene when the shooting began, but police in another car spotted him and soon overtook him.

Meanwhile, the two bandits who had entered the bank commandeered a passing automobile and drove off before police reinforcements arrived.

Snakes do not travel in pairs.

Task Force 38 to Sail for Far Eastern Ports In October; 'Routine Cruise' Navy Says

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23 (AP) — Naval Task Force 38, operating with two carriers and supporting warships, will sail for Far East ports, including China, on Oct. 1.

Navy spokesmen said the carriers Tarawa and Princeton and their screening craft would be on a "regularly scheduled routine cruise," visiting the "usual ports" of Yokosuka in Japan and Tsingtao in China.

It is expected that one or perhaps two destroyer divisions (a division normally consists of four ships) and about three cruisers will accompany the 27,000-ton Essex class carriers.

The task force presumably will be at sea or in Far East ports for three or four months if the pattern of similar cruises is followed.

THE TWO CARRIERS now are at San Diego, Calif., preparing for the cruise.

Navy spokesmen said, in answer to a question, that the task force is not sailing because of any emergency. Nor did they associate the orders with a situation described in the current issue of the Saturday Evening Post.

An article, written from Tsingtao by Darrell Barrigan, is entitled "Is Our Navy Trapped in China?"

It reports that a small naval unit, commanded by a rear admiral, is at Tsingtao, China coast port across the Yellow Sea from Korea. The city, held by nationalist government forces, is menaced by advancing Communist forces. The writer quotes Navy enlisted man as concerned over the fact that Russian air fields are only two flying hours away from Tsingtao. He reports that the United States land force at the city consists of only 5000 Marines and raises the question of what the future of the port, as a base for United States Naval operations in that part of China, would be if Communists took the city.

Nurse Slain by Man On Their First Date

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Sept. 23 (AP) — A bespectacled nurse was raped and choked to death here early today on her first date with an automobile mechanic.

Deputy Prosecutor Tom Downie said Tommy Edwin Black, 23, Little Rock, drove to police headquarters before dawn with the body of Betty Jane McCall, 25, and admitted he had ravished and slain her after leaving a night club.

Both Black and Miss McCall were war veterans.

Prosecutor Edwin Dunaway held Black on an open charge and said he would be charged with murder and rape.

Miss McCall, a native of Texas, was acting director of nurses education at the North Little Rock Veterans hospital and during World War II was an Army nurse at Camp Chaffee, Ark.

Polio Victim Completes 17 Years in Iron Lung

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., Sept. 23 (AP) — Birdall Sweet completed 17 years of existence in an iron lung today. Stricken with infantile paralysis in September, 1931, when he was 14, Sweet lived continually in the lung for some time after he was hospitalized at Vassar hospital. In recent years he has been able to be out of the lung during waking hours, even taking automobile rides, but he returns to the lung at night.

Personalities in the News

Hopping on a train and traveling all over the country, stopping at every whistle stop is what presidential candidates do to get those votes — but, sometimes they become confused.

Gov. Thomas Dewey, GOP standard-bearer, arrived recently at Julesburg, Colo. He looked down from the back part of his train and opened his campaign speech by saying:

"It's good to be back in Denver . . ."

An aide nudged him and reminded him that he was in Julesburg. He began again.

President Truman will visit Auburn, N. Y., in Cayuga county. This is the home of Rep. John Taber, Republican chairman of the House appropriations committee.

It will be the first visit of a President to Auburn in 32 years. And is Taber worried? Not a bit.

"I'm worried for fear he won't come," he mused.

Hugh Dalton, chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster, has quit smoking.

Is it his health? No. It's the high cost of living in England.

Cigarettes in England cost 70 cents a pack. Dalton makes $20,000 a year.

There's a man in Yonkers, N. Y. He's a fisherman and he throws a mean line.

He was casting his line recently and put such force behind it that the hook and sinker passed through both sides of a seaplane anchored at the Yonkers seaplane base.

A pilot sitting in the plane said the hook barely missed his face.

The fisherman dropped his fishing tackle and fled.

Is a harmonica a musical instrument or isn't it?

Well, to James C. Petrillo, president of the AFL American Federation of Musicians, it isn't.

That is, it wasn't until recently. A group of harmonica players came in to sign up in the union.

Before Petrillo would okay them, he asked for tune, confident that his conviction that the harmonica wasn't a musical instrument would be upheld.

After they finished, he remarked: "I never knew the harmonica could sound like that."

He threw open the door of his outer office and called to some of the union's members.

"Listen to this — I want you musicians to hear some REAL music."

Now, everybody's happy. The musicians are satisfied. Petrillo is pleased and a new instrument has been added to his list.

There are laws and laws, and even the President can't violate them.

So, President Truman will visit the little town of Temple, Texas. He has to. The law says so.

A city ordinance, written into law in 1904, insists that all presidents traveling by train through the town must stop for at least five minutes.

It began when the residents heard that President Theodore Roosevelt intended to go straight through town without a pause.

The city council passed an ordinance requiring all presidential trains to stop five minutes.

When Roosevelt arrived, the city marshal and county sheriff halted his train, climbed aboard and served papers on the engineer.

Roosevelt made a speech complimenting the city on its "nerve." President Truman will stop there.

In politics, anything is liable to happen.

Hugh D. Scott, chairman of the Republican National committee, left Kansas City recently on his way to Dallas, Texas to continue a series of GOP campaign visits.

He boarded the train and was all set to leave, but he was delayed 25 minutes while his train was held up to permit the processing of another.

And who was in the other? President Truman. It was his campaign special heading west.

Actress Carmen Miranda will take time out from the profession her husband said recently.

Miss Miranda, wife of film producer David Sebastian, will become a mother next May.

Henry Wallace, Progressive candidate for president, was in White Plains, N. Y., recently to register for the November elections.

When he arrived at the registration office, he had to prove he could read and write.

Officials at the office explained that since he had never registered in New York before, he would have to take a literacy test.

He passed it with flying colors.

There are laws and laws, and even the President can't violate them.

Arabs Say Jewish Fighter
Downed Airliner, Killing 3

AMMAN, Trans-Jordan, Sept. 23 (AP)—The Arab legion charged that a Jewish fighter plane shot down an Arab airliner today, killing two British correspondents.

An Arab legion spokesman charged that the incident was a violation of the Palestine truce and said a vigorous investigation was being demanded of U. N. observers.

More Unification Is Urged For Armed Services

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23 (AP)—Tighter unification of the armed services and a clamp-down on rising military expenditures were advocated today by congressmen who conferred with the Hoover commission on reorganizing the Federal government.

Four senators and five House members met behind closed doors at the Capitol with eight representatives of the commission. Former President Herbert Hoover, who heads the group, was not present.

Ferdinand Eberstadt of New York, former vice chairman of the War Production board, who presided, did not discuss the meeting with reporters, but some of the content was disclosed.

Invited to the session were Senator Lodge (R-Mass.) and members of the House, and Senate appropriations and armed services committees. Lodge sponsored legislation getting up the Hoover commission.

It was learned that Lodge offered the chief criticism of present operations of the land, sea and air forces. He proposed that the defense secretary be given broader control of the three services.

U. N. to Get Berlin Issue
If Reds Reject Allied Notes

PARIS, Sept. 23 (AP)—Reliable informants said tonight that if the Berlin deadlock with Russia is taken up in the United Nations the United States will face immediate demands for guarantees of military support for Western Europe.

Sir Hartley Shawcross, Britain's U. N. delegate, was quoted in an interview with the Associated Press as saying "the whole question of Berlin will be tossed into the assembly agenda if the latest and final three-power note does not produce a Russian agreement."

A spokesman for the British foreign office denied several hours after the interview that Shawcross had made the statement.

The Associated Press reporter said he asked direct questions and received direct answers in his brief talk with Shawcross on the floor of the U. N. assembly.

Western officials scheduled a meeting for tomorrow at which it was expected they would thresh out finally the question of whether the case would be handed to the assembly or the Security Council in event of an unfavorable Soviet reaction to their latest note to the Kremlin.

French officials, resigning themselves to eventual transfer of the stormy Berlin issue to the U. N. arena, were said to be especially anxious for their nation's security in the aftermath of a United Nations debate.

The identical notes by the United States, Britain and France which were sent to the Kremlin last night demanding a yes-or-no answer to definite proposals on the Berlin issue were said to have been agreed upon after a direct appeal by French Foreign Minister Robert Schuman. Schuman asked for a little more patience in dealing with the Russians.

Jews Offer $20,000 Reward for Aid
In Capturing Bernadotte's Killers

TEL AVIV, Israel, Sept. 23 (AP)—Israel offered a reward of $20,000 tonight for information leading to the arrest of Count Folke Bernadotte's assassins.

Prime Minister David Ben-Gurion, in making the announcement to the legislative assembly, declared the government had seized all known Stern gang military bases and arms caches and arrested 246 members of the group without encountering resistance. He said 184 of those arrested were rounded up in Jerusalem.

The government has blamed the Stern gang for the killing. A cabinet member expressed fear that Israel's own leaders are in danger of assassination at the hands of terrorists.

"NO JEW HAS been killed yet by terrorists, but that is no guarantee," said Justice Minister Felix Rosenbluth in an interview.

Israel's government members "are in danger as long as terrorism survives," he added.

His remarks were emphasized by a spokesman formerly associated with the outlawed Stern gang who said that organization had gone underground practically intact. Its leader, Nathan Friedman Yellin, and the chief of operations were said still to be in the country.

A police announcement came from Jerusalem that a 28-year-old Arab had been arrested as an admitted member of the Jewish Stern gang in the drive to eradicate terrorism and to round up the killers of U. N. mediator Count Folke Bernadotte and his French assistant, Col. Andre Serot.

President Appears
Assured of Place on Ballot in Louisiana

BATON ROUGE, La., Sept. 23 (AP)—President Truman appeared assured today of a place on Louisiana's November ballot.

The State legislature, in special session, kept rolling a proposal to restore his name. The measure would give Truman supporters until Oct. 5 to file a petition with the secretary of state signed by 100 qualified voters nominating 10-electric candidates pledged to him.

An alternative procedure to permit the Democratic-national committee to file a slate of elector candidates with the secretary of state was stricken in committee. That provision was a fighting matter to States' Rights Democrats in battle with the national committee.

THE AMENDED bill received unanimous committee approval and was expected to receive House action tomorrow.

President Truman and his running mate, Senator Alben Barkley of Kentucky, would be listed on the ballot under some party name yet to be selected. The original bill would have listed them as "national delegates" but this provision was stricken by an amendment approved by the committee today.

States' Rights candidates, Governors J. Strom Thurmond of South Carolina and Fielding L. Wright of Mississippi, would be listed as the regular Democratic candidates.

ed for the 21-month peacetime draft between now and June 30, and officials believe there will be little trouble getting this many.

Hunters Who Found Missing
Plane, Told of Gold 'Treasure'

EDMONTON, Alta., Sept. 23 (AP)—Members of an Oregon hunting party said here today U. S. Air Force officers told them of a gold and currency cargo on a wrecked transport plane they found in the far north.

The plane crashed five years ago in remote, mountainous bush country about 450 miles northeast of Edmonton. The hunters found it a week ago.

They said they learned at Fort Nelson, B. C., the C47 plane, which carried 11 persons to their deaths, had $240,000 in currency and 400 pounds of gold bullion aboard. The Edmonton Journal estimated the cargo at close to $500,000.

The plane crashed on a south-bound flight from remote Fort Nelson.

The hunters said they did not see the money or gold in the wreckage and learned of it only upon returning to Fort Nelson.

The plane was found by C. L. Fallart of Scottsburg, Ore., and his Indian hunting guide, George Bahne.

Phoenixville Man, Roy J. Hein, Marries Fern Renninger in Colorful Ceremony Here

Miss Fern Doris Renninger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Renninger, Frederick, became the bride of Roy J. Hein Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy J. Hein Sr., Phoenixville, the past Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock, in St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran church, Samsamsville.

The altar was decorated with palms and chrysanthemums. The Rev. William L. Shand officiated at the double ring ceremony, before immediate relatives and friends of the couple. Miss Stella Sowers was at the console of the organ and the soloist was Mrs. Charles Mutter.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a lovely gown of white satin with sweetheart neckline and form-fitting bodice. The sleeves were long and pointed at the wrists while a circle of lace edged the neckline. The full skirt swept out in the back to form a long train.

From a crown of seed pearls and rhinestones fell her fingertip veil and she carried a prayerbook to which was attached a shower of white satin streamers and an orchid.

MISS HELEN RENNINGER, sister of the bride, attended as maid of honor. She wore a Copenhagen blue gown of taffeta with a high illusion neckline of off-the-shoulder effect. She wore a shoulder-length veil and a head-dress of roses to match the gown, and carried a bouquet of yellow roses.

Robert Gotwals served as best man and Robert Hein and Irwin Stetler served as ushers.

The mother of the bride chose a black crepe dress with matching accessories, and the mother of the bridegroom chose a black print dress with black accessories. Both wore gardenia corsages.

A reception was held at Green Tree Hall, Obelisk, following the ceremony after which the couple left for their honeymoon. For traveling the bride chose suit of aqua with brown accessories.

Police on Dewey's Route Watch for Train Blocks

PASADENA, Calif., Sept. 23 (AP)—Police assigned patrols today to the Santa Fe railroad tracks here and in South Pasadena, over which Governor Dewey's special train will travel tomorrow.

Two rocks, a 10-foot ladder and a flagstone were discovered on the tracks in downtown Pasadena last night. The westbound Super Chief was forced to make an emergency stop. It did not strike the obstacles.

Police believe juveniles were responsible, since similar occurrences had been noted recently, but said they are "taking no chances."

Driver Put on Probation For Motor Vehicle Offense

By Staff Correspondent
NORRISTOWN, Sept. 23—Edward Johnson, 20, of Hilldale, Pottstown, received a suspended sentence and was placed on probation for a year by Judge Harold G. Knight after he pleaded guilty today to a charge of operating a motor vehicle without the consent of the owner. Johnson was apprehended at Buttonwood alley, Pottstown, by Patrolman Thomas Corum in a truck owned by a Pottstown bakery on Aug. 14.

Brotherhood Hears Of Amish History

The Rev. John L. Smoker's address on the origin and customs of the Amish sects marked last night's meeting of the Salem-Baltzell Evangelical United Brethren Brotherhood in the Baltzell church.

He traced the history of the Amish from the French Anabaptists and German "Wiedertäufer," through Jacob Ammon, whose break with the Mennonite church caused the Amish to name themselves after him.

The Rev. Smoker, pastor of the Baltzell church and a man reared in an Amish section of Mifflin county, said that the plain dress and customs of the Amish were designed to emphasize their dislike of worldliness.

The Amish settled first near Hamburg, he said, but Indian raids drove them down to Morgantown.

The meeting was in charge of Jeremiah Bonner, acting president, while Raymond Rhoads conducted devotions.

of the government officials who gave her secret data in wartime.

She also said she collected Communist party dues from Remington for himself and his wife.

He told a news conference today he will sue, unless Miss Bentley apologizes, because "the cloak of immunity" she had when appearing before congressional committees does not cover a restatement of her charges on a broadcast.

HE SAID THE suit would be based on her appearance on an NBC television broadcast "meet the press" on Sunday, Sept. 12.

Joseph Rauh, former deputy housing expediter acting as Remington's attorney, said he has called upon NBC for an "adequate, prompt retraction." If one is not forthcoming, Rauh said, Remington will also sue the company.

A reporter commented that Miss Bentley, by a retraction, might lay herself open to perjury charges for her testimony before the Senate investigating committee and the House un-American activities committee.

Air Parcel Post Service Scheduled for Russia

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23 (AP) — The Post Office department said today a foreign air parcel post will be extended to Russia effective Oct. 1.

The foreign air parcel post service, inaugurated last March, is now available in 26 European countries.

"The Russian service will carry a weight limit of 22 pounds per package. The rate to Russian destinations will be $1.66 for the first four ounces and 63 cents for each additional four ounces."

Republicans, between two sets of ideals.

"The Democratic ideal of America," he said, "is summed up in the four freedoms: freedom from want; freedom from fear; freedom of worship; freedom of speech."

"THE REPUBLICAN IDEAL, as I have seen it in action, is summed up in the phrase, 'big business first.'"

There is "frightening evidence," Mr. Truman declared, that if the country goes Republican "everything is likely to be all wrong within a very short time."

Presenting what he called "hard facts" instead of "high sounding words," Mr. Truman said the people must wake up and realize that at this very instant their standard of living and their hopes for the future are at stake.

Then he covered some old familiar territory, blaming the Republicans for failing to act on housing, social security, health legislation, education and inflation.

"By their votes," he said, "we shall know them."

MARSHALL —

patience of others should be mistaken for weakness.

"The United States does not wish to increase the existing tension. It is its wholehearted desire to alleviate that tension."

"But we will not compromise essential principles. We will under no circumstances barter away the rights and freedoms of other peoples. We earnestly hope that all members will find ways of contributing to the lessening of tensions and the promotion of peace with justice. The people of the earth are anxiously watching our efforts here. We must not disappoint them."

A Bump in Production, Goat Aids Man to Work

ATLANTA, Sept. 23 (AP) — Every dog has his day. Why can't a goat? This one did today—until the cops came.

A man was hurrying to catch his street car. Maybe Billy, feeling a bit frolicsome, wanted to help.

Anyway, he gave the unidentified street-car rider a swift push where it would do the most good.

The belligerent Billy then took a stand by the car stop, challenging all comers.

He had no takers until the cops arrived. They finally wrestled him into a patrol wagon and escorted him home.

Carbon Monoxide Kills Boy in Rear Seat of Car

HORSHAM, Sept. 23 (AP) — A nine-year-old boy was killed by carbon monoxide gas seeping through the floorboards of an automobile en route from Ocean City, N. J., to Philadelphia.

The victim, Norman Cobourn, was found dead on the back seat of the car by his father, Lester, on the family's arrival home late last night.

Cobourn is a Philadelphia Transportation company electrician.

The boy's sister, three-year-old Mary Ann was made ill by the gas and is recovering. Dr. Harold B. Shaw, of Willow Grove, pronounced the youngster dead.

Dr. John B. Simpson, physician for Coroner W. J. Rushong, performed a post-mortem examination and confirmed Dr. Shaw's report of monoxide poisoning. The coroner issued a certificate of accidental death.

PENN VILLAGE —

will have to abide by the income limits of May, 1947.

THAT THE EVICTION of many of the families is certain was indicated in a letter reviewing the laws under which the low-rent housing units were developed. John Taylor Egan, public housing commissioner in Washington, pointed out to the authority that it is a violation of the contract between the authority and the Federal government to permit high-income families to remain in the project.

Only a waiver from the Public Housing administration permits the local housing authorities to plan for an orderly removal of ineligible tenants instead of evicting all of them at one time.

The letter intimated possible future evictions of families, even if they were in the eligible brackets, if local conditions warranted. It continued:

"Moreover, local authorities should, in addition to effecting removal of the previously approved monthly percentage of ineligible tenants, take immediate action to remove as rapidly as permitted by law, any tenants whose incomes are excessively high in relation to local conditions."

"Such families should more readily than heretofore find accommodations elsewhere. Their removal should effectively increase the supply of public housing accommodations for low-income families who are desperately in need of such facilities and it will tend to accelerate and add impetus to the program of removing all ineligible tenants."

PUBLIC LAW 901, as enacted by the 80th Congress, is the instrument which recognized the need for restoring the low-rent projects to the use for which they originally were intended, Egan declared.

"I cannot emphasize too strongly," he concluded, "our mutual responsibility in taking all of the actions necessary to restore the low-rent projects to the exclusive use of low-income families."

To further complicate the housing situation in Pottstown, the borough is obligated by contract to eliminate 117 sub-standard homes, either by razing them or by renovation.

The deadline for this action has been set at May 20, 1949.

Modern lead pencils were not developed until the discovery in 1864 of a graphite mine in Cumberland, England.

Tricks of Dressing Taught to Doe Club As Fashion Authority Speaks in Elks' Home

Doe club members learned several new tricks and twists to lighten their wardrobe cost last night in the Elks' home, as Mrs. Esther Carlitz, fashion authority of Philadelphia, demonstrated how many changes can be achieved from one good dress and a few accessories.

Using a basic dress of that new shade of blue that as yet has not received a name, she added a scarf here and a pin there until she had achieved a short dress, two dressy dresses and several for street wear.

The basic dress had a simple top, as all basic dresses must, and buttoned halfway down the back and thence across one hip to the bottom of the skirt. The front skirt was draped. As a really startling change she took the dress off and completely turned it around. It had an entirely different look buttoning down the front, with a back drape.

SHE EXPLAINED that many dresses with simple tops can be worn backwards if the owner is brave enough to try. For a really dressy dress, she suggested two little jeweled pins at either side of the neckline, a little jeweled hat, and a gold belt. Taking a gold scarf with a touch of blue she knotted it with a bow under the chin.

For a street dress she wore the dress with the buttons to the front and winding the scarf around her neckline, wove it in and out of the buttonholes, and buttoned the buttons through giving the impression of a complete collar and button set. She also gave directions in the using of the scarf for a cummerbund.

One of the newest dressy tricks is using the new sleeve band, reminiscent of the men's armbands with three-quarter and full-length sleeves.

FOLLOWING the address by Mrs. Carlitz, a birthday party for all the members who had birthdays in July, August and September was enjoyed with the following honored: the Mesdames—Mary Yerger, Martha Blake, Blanche Maacke, Esther Impink, Lillian Penman, Flora Borgiet, Leota Lessig, Marion Kyser, Nellie Kulp, Nellie Koury, Helen Levengood, Francis Lech, Mabel Rhoads, Edith Gerber, Lillian Packer and Marie Montague.

The prize for bringing the most members was awarded to Mrs. Fay Speer. Regular prizes were won by Mrs. Marie Unruh and Mrs. Kulp, while the special prizes were won by Mrs. Levengood and Mrs. Margaret Houck.

One new member, Mrs. Mamie Imbody, was added to the group. Later, refreshments were served by the hospitality committee, Mrs. Fay Speer, chairman.

Two Scouts Welcomed Into Girl Scout Troop 4

Two new scouts, Barbara Good and Joan Romich, were welcomed into Girl Scout Troop 4 of Grace Lutheran church last night in the recreation room of the church.

The meeting was spent in making leather change purses and comb cases, under the direction of Miss Eleanor Land, president of Pottstown Girl Scout council.

Some folk dances were also learned.

It was announced that next Thursday the scouts should meet at the church at 7:15 o'clock at which time they will proceed to the Bell Telephone company to tour the building.

On Oct. 4 the troop will attend a fair and a farmers' dance at Christ Episcopal church.

There were 20 scouts and two visitors present. Leaders were Miss Mildred Geist, Miss LaRue Bickel, Miss Beatrice Gehris and Mrs. Walter Dames.

Richard Uba to Wed Lucy C. Wojciechowski

Miss Lucy C. Wojciechowski, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Wojciechowski, Collegeville RD 4, will become the bride of Mr. Richard M. Uba, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Uba, Royersford RD 1, tomorrow morning in St. Eleanor's Catholic church, Collegeville.

The Rev. John F. K. O'Neill, rector, will officiate at the double ring ceremony. Organ music will be presented by Miss Margaret Collins and vocal solos will be rendered by Miss Alice Barrett.

Miss Lorraine Uba, sister of the bride, will act as maid of honor, while bridesmaid will be Miss Connie Kateswicz, of Trenton, N. J., a cousin of the bridegroom.

Duties of best man will be performed by Mr. Thad Uba, brother of the bridegroom, and Mr. Watson Wiohech will act as usher. Immediately following the ceremony, a reception for friends and relatives will be held at the Limerick fire company.

Party Look at the Office

For the day when a girl must rush from the office for a very special date with the boy friend, Leshe Brooks, film star, suggests a hairdo like the one she is wearing. All the hair is swept up from the back into neat smooth little curls, which will not become disarrayed no matter how hectic the day. The trick is to pin each curl down in the morning and release the pins before the big date.

Marion Kennard Feted On Birthday Anniversary

Miss Marion Kennard, 15-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kennard, Douglassville, was feted at a birthday party last night given by her parents in their home.

After the many lovely gifts were opened, refreshments were served. The table was decorated with pink and white streamers and the centerpiece consisted of a bouquet of gladiolas and snapdragons.

Twenty-five guests attended from Pottstown, Douglassville and Reading.

'Prepare Children for School Routine,' Urges Dr. Mabel Kessler, Psychiatrist

"Reading to your child at home, teaching him to dress himself, teaching him to follow orders and looking at books with him, all help to adjust him for his first year at school," declared Dr. Mabel Kessler, Montgomery county psychiatrist, who spoke at last night's meeting of the Lower Pottsgrove Parent-Teacher association in the school-house.

Dr. Kessler told the members how the first year at school demands a big adjustment on the part of a child. She also told them of the ability, or I. Q. tests, that the child should receive before he starts school. This test is given in order to let the teacher know what the child's mental ability is so that she can teach him accordingly.

New ways of handling problem children, such as teaching them to play games which demand concentration, were suggested by Dr. Kessler. One of the points stressed by the speaker was the fact that poetry is going "out of style" in many of the schools. She asked the teachers to teach the children to memorize poems as this will discipline their minds and help them to appreciate literature.

At the business meeting, the first one of the Fall season, Mrs. Paul Geary, the new president, presided. Mr. Norman Arndt led the group in singing and Mrs. Carl Dunmire accompanied on the piano.

Devotions were led by Mrs. Robert Reitenbaugh. The room award was won by Mrs. Robert Borneman, who led the school chorus in singing. New committees appointed by the president are as follows:

Program, Mr. Arndt, chairman, Mrs. Richard Robertson, Mrs. Jack Tinkler, Mrs. Esther Diener, Mr. Lester Monks, Mrs. Wilson Puhl and Mrs. James Schmidt, aides.

Ways and means, Mrs. Milton Eshbach and Mrs. Kenneth Kirk, co-chairman, Mrs. Joseph Schultz, Mrs. James Miller and Mrs. George Yocum, aides; music, Mrs. Robert Borneman, chairman, Mrs. Carl Dunmire and Mr. Arndt, aides.

PUBLICITY. Mrs. William Ebert Jr. and Mrs. Borneman, co-chairmen; publications, Mrs. Esther Diener; hospitality, Mrs. Frank Snell, chairman, Mrs. Albert Conner, Mrs. Albert Spangenberg, Mrs. Walter Engle and Mrs. Jack Buckwalter, aides; membership, Mrs. Ethelbert Barnard, chairman, Mrs. Conner, Mrs. Engle, Mrs. Joseph Schrist, Mrs. Richard Moyer, Mrs. Vernon Cheatem, Mrs. Norman Arndt, Mrs. Spangenberg, Mrs. Lois Guest, Mrs. Howard Rahn, Mrs. Curtis Brendlinger, Mrs. Carl Buchholz and Mrs. Otis Bradford, aides.

Cafeteria. Mr. Albert Spangenberg, chairman, Mr. Arndt, Mrs. Schultz, Mrs. Geary, Mr. Eshbach, Mrs. Leonard Ebert and Mrs. Carl Pickar, aides.

During the social hour refreshments were served by the hospitality committee and poems, written by PTA mothers, were read by Mrs. Diener, who asked the group to write more poems and to give them to her.

Upper Frederick PTA Elects Virginia Hall To Secretarial Post

Mrs. Virginia Hall was elected as secretary of the Upper Frederick Parent-Teacher association at a meeting Thursday night in the Church school, following the resignation of Mrs. Mary Kauffman.

Two new chairmen were elected, Mrs. Thelma Schmooch, as head of the membership committee, and Mrs. Howard Smith in charge of hospitality. The report on the safety patrol was favorable and showed an excellent start under the leadership of Mrs. Flora Kuhn.

The library is now open to the public on Wednesday nights from 7:30 o'clock until 9 o'clock, with a large selection of books being offered.

Teachers of the three schools preferred the installation of radio-phonographs in their schools rather than play ground equipment, with the members voting to purchase these with the money earned for the equipment.

The group decided to have all meetings but two this season in the Church school rather than rotating from school to school as had been done in the past. The two exceptions will be held in the other schools.

As a conclusion to the meeting, an historical movie, "Pennsylvania," showing the highlights of the history and scenic beauty of the state, were shown by Mr. L. M. Wright.

Helen Arlene Mauger And Richard DeWalt To Marry Tomorrow

Among the many large weddings planned for the weekend will be that of Miss Helen Arlene Mauger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Mauger, 769 Main street, Royersford, to Mr. Richard Charles DeWalt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard R. DeWalt, 321 Bridge street, Spring City.

The nuptials will take place in First Evangelical and Reformed church, Royersford, at 3 o'clock with the Rev. Franklin P. Watts, pastor, officiating and the organ recital will be presented by Mrs. William A. Kline, Downingtown. Soloists will be Mrs. Baxton D. Dunlap and Miss Betty Mauger.

The bride has selected for her matron of honor, her sister, Mrs. Robert Weber, and as her bridesmaids, Miss Betty Mauger, another sister and Mrs. John L. Edleman. Appearing as flower girl will be Kathleen Watts.

Mr. Howard M. DeWalt will serve his brother as best man and his ushers will be Mr. Carl DeWalt, another brother, and Mr. Donald Custer.

A reception will follow at the Seven Stars restaurant, Spring City.

BARCLAY ON BRIDGE

By SHEPARD BARCLAY

Each Has Its Merits
WHEREAS the Blackwood convention has an advantage in that one partner gets specific information without the opponents learning too much, the Culbertson 4-5 No Trumps possesses just as definite an edge in another respect. Each partner learns something about the top-dressing of the hand opposite him. So, sometimes, if one of the partners is not in position to employ effectively the knowledge gained, his mate across the table may be able to use what he has learned.

Bidding given in the first sequence was about what developed at most tables of a tournament was used. South learned that North had no aces, but North couldn't tell whether South had two aces or three. It was hence a guess for him. Some Norths took it into 6-Spades, others left it just short of a slam.
In the second sequence you find the bidding of a pair that used the

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE—Here's how to work it:
A N Y D L B A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W
One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

Norco Grange Plans Show Booth to Give Fall Crops a Boost

The North Coventry Grange will sponsor a booth at a farm and home products show Tuesday night in North Coventry High school. The booth will boost fall gardens.

C. Rudolph Kulp, past master of the grange, explained that emphasis is usually on Spring gardens, but many vegetables can be re-planted in Summer for a Fall harvest.

Other sponsors at the show will be the Norco FFA, vocational and home economics departments of the school and the Norco Future Farmers of America.

Not only farm and garden products will be displayed, but home-made jellies, jams and dresses.

A MEETING OF 75 grange members last night heard Howard Gaut, project committee chairman, tell of the progress of the grange's community projects for the year.

The grange has given $50 to the Norco FFA as a revolving fund to be used by one or more members every year on an agricultural project and then paid back to the FFA for the next year.

About 50 signs, made and painted by members, pointing the way to churches and other notable spots in the township, have been completed and will be erected soon.

And efforts to found a Cub Scout pack in the Cedarville area are still in progress.

LAST NIGHT was booster night, designed to inform and interest outsiders in grange work. Part of the program consisted of a prize-winning one-act play produced, directed and acted by grangers. It was entitled "The Shock of His Life."

Victor Ayres sang a solo; Mrs. Jesse Spicher gave a reading and Clarence Kulp gave a talk.

Rubber Workers Re-elect Buckmaster by 2 Votes

OMAHA, Sept. 23 (P) — In the closest election contest in the union's history, L. S. Buckmaster, of Akron, Ohio, today was named to his fourth term as general president of the CIO United Rubber, Cork, Linoleum and Plastic Workers of America.

Buckmaster, 54, received 810 votes to 808 for George R. Bass, 43, Akron.

Bass and Buckmaster were on opposite sides in a factional fight which has marked the 13th annual international convention since its outset. Buckmaster described the dispute as one to decide whether the union should move to the right or left, politically. He advocated a right-wing course.

to the government," Dewey said. That if industrial progress in America had been dependent wholly on the government there would have been very little of it.

The GOP candidate added: "I propose that we protect this weapon of our defense with every means and that we develop it further with every means. And then I propose that we go from there and give American initiative and skill a chance to turn this power to productive and peaceful account."

Tomorrow he moves into California for another major address at the Hollywood bowl in Los Angeles. Dewey told his audience tonight the control of atomic energy is high on the agenda of the United Nations general assembly meeting now in Paris.

Atomic By-Product Used To Detect Heart Ailments

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23 (P)—A new atomic-energy method of detecting abnormalities of the human heart was described by scientists today.

Called "radiocardiography," it involves use of radioactive sodium—a by-product of atomic bomb development—injected into the blood stream.

"Signals" given off by the ray-emitting sodium enable doctors to trace the flow of blood through the chambers of the heart.

The impulses are detected by a sensitive instrument and recorded in the form of waves on a piece of paper.

Researchers of Cedars of Lebanon hospital, Los Angeles, writing in the journal "Science," said a normal heart gives a characteristic wave picture. An "enlarged" heart, with or without actual "failure," produces "definite deviations" from the normal wave picture.

Nanticoke Man Jumps Into Path of Train, Dies

WILKES-BARRE, Sept. 23 (P) — A Nanticoke man was instantly killed this morning when he accidentally jumped in front of a west-bound Pennsylvania railroad train near Loomis crossing in that city.

The victim was identified by Chief of Police John Smerski as Nicholas Misho, about 65, who resided in the rear of 23 Lower Broadway.

D. C. Stump, assistant trainmaster who investigated for the railroad company, said Misho, who also was known as Meshok and Mischel, was walking west on the main track when the train hit him.

Anti-Red Berlin Rioters Get Soviet Penalties Cut

BERLIN, Sept. 23 (P)—The Berlin radio said tonight the Russians have reduced the 25-year sentence given five young Germans for rioting at the Brandenburg gate.

The severity of the penalties had caused much indignation. The radio said the terms were reduced to eight years for two youths, and to four, three and one year for the others.

The rioting occurred during the greatest rally in Berlin since the war, with anti-Communists denouncing Russia and the German Communists who had muscled into the city hall. At one point, Russian troops fired into a group of the demonstrators.

Veteran Trojan Grid Team Set for Upper Merion Tussle

8 LETTERMEN IN LINEUP FOR LOCAL SCHOOL

Kickoff of Tonight's Game Stated for 8 o'clock; Trojans Seek Revenge

All decked out in their new armor, Pottstown High's Men of Troy will go forth into battle tonight.

The Trojans, with eight lettermen in the starting lineup, will open their 1948 football season under the arcs at Franklin Field against a veteran Upper Merion High eleven which walked away with a 25-7 triumph a year ago.

The kickoff of tonight's game, the fifth between the two schools, is scheduled for 8 o'clock sharp.

Of the four games played, the Trojans have won three and the Spartans one. The Trojans first defeated Upper Merion in 1944 with Howard L. J. Stauffer as coach. The following year Pottstown won again and this time under Coach Earl Strange. In 1946 the Trojans won their third straight from the Spartans with Heeb T. Meyers at the helm.

THE PAST YEAR'S defeat evened Meyers' record with Upper Merion at one victory and one defeat. This year Meyers has high hopes of taking an edge over Upper Merion.

Four co-captains will lead the Trojans into battle tonight: Bobby Mauger, Mel Howard, Dave Towers and George "Pud" Rath. All are lettermen. Other lettermen slated to start against the Spartans tonight are Carl Supple, Pete Peroni, Bob Dobry and Ken Saylor.

Joe Pollock, Elliot Silver and Carl Bodolus, all linemen, are the other three starters.

THE TROJANS will be a strong running team this year with five backs returning from the past year's squad, which won three losses and tied one. Four additional backs from the Pottstown Junior High eleven which won eight and dropped only one game in 1947 have strengthened the Trojan team a lot.

Meyers points out that this year's Trojan team is well experienced and should have a good season. The boys have grown and have put on weight and should better their 1947 record.

Upper Merion comes here with an experienced team to seek its second straight win over Coach Heeb Meyers' proteges.

WITH PAUL MCKERNAN back in the lineup, Coach Tom Campion has molded himself a team which will be able to hold its own with most of the teams in this area.

McKernan, a halfback, tossed 19 touchdown passes in nine games a year ago and has already tossed one pass for a six-pointer this year.

Injuries to two lettermen, however, have weakened the Spartans a little in the past few weeks. Joe Suzanne, a tackle, was injured in pre-season practice and didn't get a chance to play. Another letterman, Mike Berry, the Spartan's regular quarterback, was injured in the Ambler game and will not see action tonight. The Spartans tied Ambler, 12-12, in their first game.

CAMPION INTRODUCED the T-formation and the Y-formation at Upper Merion and continued to use them in the game. McKernan is the spark plug in both formations and may give the Trojans considerable trouble tonight.

Upper Merion will bring a squad of 30 players to Pottstown tonight, eight of which are lettermen. Five lettermen will start against the Trojans.

Tonight's game will mark the start of Coach Meyers' fourth season at Pottstown High. In three years Meyers' teams have won 15 games, lost 10 and tied one.

Royersford Lassies Win Hockey Match

PENNSBURG HIGH GOES ON ROAD FOR NIGHT GAME

Bulldogs Seek First Win At Lower Moreland; Team Much Improved

After dropping a heart-breaking 7-0 decision to Sellersville-Perkasie in their first game the past week, Pennsburg High's Bulldogs travel to Lower Moreland tonight still seeking their first victory for their new coach, Lou Pirnik. Kickoff is scheduled for 8:15 o'clock.

The Bulldogs outplayed Sellersville-Perkasie throughout the entire game a week ago and had numerous opportunities to score, but still the home team managed to win on a fluke play in the final period.

The Bulldogs gained over 200 yards rushing against the Sell-Perk eleven but didn't have enough drive to push the pigskin over the goal.

Pirnik said last night that he thinks his team has improved quite a bit during the past week and have a good chance of winning tonight. "We have straightened out our mistakes and have added a few more plays and should start to move," said Pirnik after he dismissed his team at their final work-out last night.

Tonight's game between the Bulldogs and Lower Moreland marks the first time the two schools have met on the gridiron since 1946. Pirnik said Pennsburg played Lower Moreland a few years ago but then ended the series just before the war.

Pirnik said he will use his regular lineup against Lower Moreland tonight. Joe Nolte and Bill Haas will be stationed at the end posts, Charlie Knause and Dick Buck will start at tackle, Bob Leister and Fritz Mutter are scheduled for guard duty and "Ditto" Dzerenda will be at center. The Pennsburg backfield will have Eddie Nieznan at quarterback, Jerry Kulp and Willie Eschbach at halfback and Paul Gerhart at fullback.

Two Veteran Jockeys Injured in Steeplechase

NEW YORK, Sept. 23 (AP)—Two veteran riders, Warren Mehrtens and Charles H. Williams, were injured today at Belmont Park on a program featured by Trough Hill's easy victory in the Brook Steeplechase handicap.

Both riders were taken to a hospital suffering concussions, a track physician reported. Mehrtens' condition was described by the hospital as "only fair."

Mehrtens fell with the Dearborn stable's Out 'O' Sun when the horse stumbled after the start of the second race. The colt had to be destroyed.

Boudreau Sees Tough Road Ahead For Indians in Race to Pennant

CLEVELAND, Sept. 23 (AP)—Lou Boudreau, modest manager of the Cleveland Indians, visioned a tough road ahead for his pennant-minded club today.

Admittedly happy over last night's outcome, which boosted the Indians into a first place tie with Boston in the upper American league race, the player-pitcher looked upon the coming three-game series in Detroit with apprehension. It was obvious he had not forgotten the 1940 season when the Tigers knocked his club out of the race two weeks before the campaign's end.

"Last night's game was of tremendous importance to us," he admitted, "but don't for one moment believe that it decided the pennant. We're not out of the woods yet by any means. Any one of three teams can win the flag. The Indians, Red Sox and Yankees have equal chances."

"I don't believe this race will be decided until a week from Saturday, next to the last day of the season," he added.

BOUDREAU TOOK exception to the general opinion that the Tribe had the best of the remaining schedule. After today, each of the three contenders will have eight games left. The Tribe has six games with the fifth place Tigers, and two with Chicago. Boston and New York tangle five times, with the Red Sox taking on the weak Washingtons in three matches and the Yankees engaging the Philadel-

Williams KO's Flores In 10th to Retain Title; Robinson Wins Easily

YANKEE STADIUM, New York, Sept. 23 (AP)—Lethal Ike Williams of Trenton, N. J., knocked out game little Jesse Flores of Stockton, Calif., in the 10th round of a rousing scrap at Yankee stadium tonight to retain his world lightweight title.

Flores, down four times previously from Williams' smashing blows, finally succumbed to a terrific right uppercut which dumped him to his knees, and was counted out by Referee Mark Conn at 2:04 of the round.

In a 10-round companion piece which preceded the main event, welterweight champion Ray Robinson punched out a unanimous decision over Kid Gavilan of Cuba in a non-title bout. A slim crowd of 15,413 paid $85,150 to witness the star card put on by the 20th Century Sporting Club.

Of the two headline attractions, the championship test between Williams and the game little Mexican-American from the Coast, packed most of the thrills.

Williams, making his third straight title defense this year—a modern record in any weight division—slammed Flores to the canvas twice for counts of nine in the fifth round.

Twice more in the eighth Flores was dropped for counts of nine and eight, but until the instant that Williams finally nailed him in the 10th it looked as though the coast-gamer would stick it out.

Possessed of the gal of a ticket speculator, the challenger came back after each of the first four knockdowns to fight Williams to a frazzle. After being dumped twice in the eighth Flores actually was whaling the champ all over the ring when the bell clanged.

Flores' difficulty was that he couldn't hurt Williams—could only stall him off with a darting left and some very fancy footwork. Williams, on the other hand, threw cobblestones. He stalked Flores steadily, held his fire until he had a target worth shooting at, and then tore the Mexican's head half off.

THE FIRST KNOCKDOWN in the Flores only half-conscious, and his handlers had to carry him to his stool. It was a minute or two before his eyes began to focus and he could prepare to leave the ring.

On the Associated Press score sheet, Flores had won three rounds by narrow margins up to the time the tractor hit him—the first, fourth and seventh. Williams had taken the others, so the Negro champion had a fairly safe margin on points.

Williams was impartial about the swats he used to put Flores down.

THE FIRST KNOCKDOWN in the fifth, which draped the challenger over the lower rope, was scored with a left hook to the head. The next three, in order, came from a right to the head, a right to the jaw and a right uppercut.

Both fighters weighed 134½.

Only a large gathering of Latin fans stood along the right field foul line dissenting from Robinson's victory over Kid Gavilan, a flashy fighter. They, however, made so much noise for so long that the announcer had great difficulty introducing the main events.

The three officials thought the welter champ won handily. Eddie Joseph, the referee, voted the Robinson ticket 7-3. Judge Frank Forbes scored it 7-2 and one even, and Judge Arthur Ardiello made it 6-4. The Associated Press score sheet gave it to Robinson, 6-2-2.

THE PROMOTERS thought Gavilan made it close enough to deserve a return, and they said afterward that they would try to rematch the pair for a championship bout in the Garden October 23.

Both fighters were over the 147-pound welterweight limit tonight. Gavilan came in at 148½ and Robinson, 150½. Gavilan's manager, Angel Lopez, said his man had not yet made up his mind whether he would exact a $5000 forfeit from Robinson for having weighed over the 150 pounds he had agreed to.

Neither fighter was knocked down tonight, nor seriously hurt. Neither was cut or marked, though they mixed it hard much of the time and swung with a will, but missed with a high percentage of his swings. Robinson wasted few blows, but socked his man cleanly when he found an opening.

Tigers Slage Rally In 9th Inning to Beat Mackmen, 8-7

DETROIT, Sept. 23 (AP)—The Detroit Tigers rubbed out a 7-2 fifth inning deficit here today, coming from behind to beat the Philadelphia Athletics 8 to 7 with two big runs in the ninth.

George Vico tripled between the outfielders in left center to send Dick Wakefield and Eddie Mayo across the plate with the tying and winning runs after one man was out in the Tiger ninth. Both of them had singled.

Walt Holbrook, up to the A's from the New York Bushwicks and making his first start, pitched all the way, giving up 16 hits.

Philadelphia got its seven hits in clusters to score seven times in the first five innings off Ted Gray but went hitless before reliever Billy Pierce, the ultimate winning pitcher, in the last four.

Detroit's smallest baseball crowd in more than three years, 1898 fans, sat through chilly weather to see the Tigers finish their season series with the A's. Detroit won 12, Philadelphia 10.

Yanks Drop 4-2 Tilt To White Sox, Lose Ground in Flag Race

CHICAGO, Sept. 23 (AP)—The Yankees' drive to make it a three-way tie for the American league lead sliced into the rough today as the New Yorkers suffered a 4-2 loss to the Chicago White Sox in their final game in the West.

As a result of the defeat, the 1947 world champions dropped a full game behind the Boston Red Sox and Cleveland Indians as they started home to begin an all-important three-game series with the Boston club in New York tomorrow.

The combination of a 31-year-old southpaw, Frank Papias, and chilly, windy weather that limited the crowd to 2746 stopped the Bronx Bombers today. Papias yielded only six hits while Ed Lopat, who prefers to pitch in hot weather, gave up five painful blows and three runs in the fourth inning.

Papias, who had lost six games in a row, turned in his second complete game of the season and his second victory against eight losses. He received no little aid from the wind which blew in from the outfield. The Yanks didn't even threaten Papias seriously except in their two scoring innings and they left ten men stranded on the bases.

AFTER EACH TEAM scored a run in the third inning, the Sox settled things in the fourth when five hits were combined with passed ball to produce Chicago's three runs.

Luke Appling and Ralph Weigel opened the inning with singles and a passed ball allowed both to advance. Appling scored as Taft Wright scratched a single off Lopat's glove, then Weigel came home with a second run when Ralph Hoedgins grounded into a double play. Cass Michaels' neat out to a bounder for another hit and Don Kolloway followed with the most solid blow of the inning, a double to right, to score Michaels.

Bob Porterfield took over the pitching chores for the Yankees after that inning and stopped the Sox with only one more hit.

Dale Smith, assistant football coach at North Coventry, shows four Norco backfield men how to use the snap of the wrist to toss a good pass at yesterday's practice on the Norco field. Watching the demonstration are (left to right) Jim Orandosh, Jim Ellis, Bill McCrudden and Donald Batdorf. The Wildcats will wind up four weeks of practice this afternoon for their first game with Collegeville High at Collegeville tomorrow.

SENATORS RALLY TO NIP BROWNS BY 9-8 SCORE

Washington Gets 5 Runs In Fifth; Scarborough Is Winning Pitcher

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 23 (AP) — A five-run fifth inning was sufficient for the Washington Senators to edge the St. Louis Browns 9-8 tonight after a two-run homer by Ed Stewart and a one-run triple by Sherry Robertson sent Washington away to an early lead. The Browns failed to catch up despite three runs in the seventh inning and two in the eighth.

Rae Scarborough, who contributed to the Senators' big inning with a two-run single, was the winning pitcher. Two others finished and the Browns used four additional hurlers after starter Fred Sanford was knocked out in the third by Stewart's home run. Each team got 12 hits.

A Washington double play in the eighth checked the Browns' second uprising. Bobby Dillinger, with the bases loaded and none out, singled home a run. But Paul Lehner hit into the double play, although Les Moss scored, and Al Kobar ended the inning and the night's scoring by throwing out Gerald Priddy.

It was the Browns 26th one-run defeat this season. Washington St. Louis a.b.r.h.o.a. a.b.r.h.o.a. Muhlenberg Gridders Full of Team Spirit ALLENTOWN, Sept. 23 (AP) — "It may not be the best team in the school's history but it certainly has more real team spirit," that's what I have ever coached," said Floyd Schwartzwalder, coach of Muhlenberg football Mules today.

The Mules open their season against Boston university under the lights in Allentown High school's new $1,000,000 stadium, Saturday night.

Perhaps the answer to the team spirit is found in the fact that the entire first string lineup is practically the same which went through the 1947 campaign with the loss of only one game and that by one point, 7-6, to Temple university. Schwartzwalder, however, probably will not use the holdover varsity as a unit. He intends to split it into two teams, one to be used on the offense and the other defensively.

Dodgers Defeat Giants, 7-1, Still Have Chance for Title

NEW YORK, Sept. 23 (AP) — The Brooklyn Dodgers remained, mathematically, in the National league pennant race today as they beat the New York Giants, 7-1.

The triumph moved the Dodgers one percentage point behind the runner-up St. Louis Cardinals and within seven games of the pennant bound Boston Braves. The Braves and Cardinals were idle.

Brooklyn has seven games left to play and the Braves nine. One Dodger defeat or one Boston victory will eliminate the Dodgers.

THE DODGERS broke up a close ball game with a three-run eighth inning rally that G.H. Hodges and Roy Campanella featured with home runs off starting and losing pitcher Monte Kennedy.

Brooklyn nicked Kennedy for two runs in the second inning on two walks, a single, Johnny Mize's error and a fly out.

Mize atoned for his error when he hit his 39th home run of the season in the seventh inning to put the Giants within a run of a deadlock. Mize now is tied with Pittsburgh's Ralph Kiner for the loop's home run leadership.

The Dodgers quickly put the game out of reach of the Giants in the eighth. Mize's home run singled to start the rally and was forced at second by Carl Furillo but Hodges and Campanella followed with their circuit blasts to sew it up. The Brooks coupled three hits along with

Yanks Add Players For Stretch Drive

NEW YORK, Sept. 23 (AP) — Five players were called up today by the New York Yankees in their drive for the American league pennant. All will report tomorrow when the Yankees open a crucial series with the Boston Red Sox.

The players, all from Newark in the International league, are: Joe Collins, outfielder who hit 23 home runs this season; Jack Phillips, first baseman; Gerald Coleman, infielder; pitcher Dick Starr, who won 14 and lost nine and pitcher Clarence Marshall, with a 9-6 record.

40,000 Braves Fans See Series Tickets

BOSTON, Sept. 23 (AP) — More than 40,000 applications for World Series tickets have been received by the Boston Braves, a spokesman said tonight. That announcement came within 20 hours of the first word from the Braves that applications would be accepted.

Extra help has been hired at the Braves office and the post office to handle the rush which began last night shortly after the Braves announcement. A 17-year-old Belmont High school boy was first to get his tickets.

Grid Giants Whip Boston Yanks by 27-7

BOSTON, Sept. 23 (AP) — Scoring three touchdowns on forward passes and their fourth on an old fashioned line smash the New York Giants opened their National league football season tonight by trimming the Boston Yanks 27-7 before a sparse Fenway park crowd of 7428. It was the second league defeat for the Yanks who were scrubbed 34-0 in their opener the past week by Green Bay Packers.

Errors Help Redlegs Down Phillies by 3-2

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 23 (AP) — The Cincinnati Reds took advantage of three Philadelphia errors tonight to defeat the Phillies 3-2 in their final game of the season. Johnny Blatnik's homer accounted for the first Philadelphia run in the eighth.

The Phillies outbit the Reds 14 to 6 but left 14 men stranded on the bases as Cincinnati moved within one game of sixth place.

The Reds scored the first two runs in the sixth. Frankie Baumholtz doubled and came home on Hank Sauer's single. Sauer moved to second on the throw to the plate and scored when Blix Donnelly threw wild trying to pick him off the bag.

They added another in the eighth without the aid of a hit when Ted Kuszewski scored from third on Virgil Stallcup's perfect squeeze play.

Best beer we ever brewed
Thousands of men and women, hundreds of club owners, hotel proprietors, tavern operators, and others who know beer, say this about Sunshine: "That's the best beer you ever brewed."
Well, good beer's largely a matter of taste, and in the old days we brewed heavy dark beers, porters, stouts, and ales that fitted old-time palates. Today, we brew a sparkling light beer, that naturally is called Sunshine. It's made in the finest of modern equipment. It's brewed with all the skill acquired in 100 years of brewing experience. For real refreshment, next time you're hot and thirsty, try a cold bottle of Sunshine. It's extra light. It's extra good.

Parade Opening Community Chest Drive Postponed to Oct. 25; Details Advanced

The Community Chest parade, public opening of the 1948 drive, has been postponed from Oct. 20 to Oct. 25 at 7:45 p. m. because of conflict with activities of other organizations, it was announced last night.

At the same time it was announced that Roger Firestone, managing director of the Pottstown plant of the Firestone Tire and Rubber company, will be guest of honor at the Oct. 19 dinner that will begin the drive.

William F. Lamb Jr., chairman of the music and band committee, is contacting local music groups about appearing in the parade while William Yohn, organization committee head, is contacting local marching and drill units.

H. LeRoy Christman, general chairman of the drive, has set Tuesday at 12:10 p. m. as the time for an organization luncheon in Howard Johnson restaurant of the campaign committee.

IN CHRISTMAN'S group are Mrs.

James I. Wendell, heading the women's division; Robert F. Smith, advance gifts; Jacob R. Sotter, classified gifts; Charles L. Schulz, industrial; the Rev. George A. Liner, speakers, and Oliver Christman, reports.

Ernest V. Hunter is marshal of the parade, which is planned to exemplify work of the 11 participating agencies of the chest.

PINE SWAMP

Mary E. Stauffer, Elverson RD 1, Corres.

A Harvest Home service will be held in Pine Swamp church Sunday night at 7:30 o'clock. Everybody has been invited to attend, and all gifts of fruits, vegetables, jellies and other items will be given to the EC church home at Myerstown.

A display of the goods will be held in the church during the service.

Watch Out Below!

What a spot to be in, reflects "Buttons," as she cowers in a pail, knowing what her fate will be if she steps out. But the little cowering spaniel on top of the bucket is in no hurry as he stands like the "sword of Damocles" about the hapless little kitty in Chicago.

Bethlehem Steel Here Wins Safety Award

With less than one accident for every million man-hour worked, Pottstown's Bethlehem Steel company plan finished first in a national safety contest.

H. L. Williams, plant manager, made this announcement yesterday. The award was in Group A, heavy fabricating division, metals section of the 1947-8 contest sponsored by the National Safety Council.

The local division had taken top honors in 1944-45, but in the contests of the next two years had dropped to second and then third position.

The steel mills of the Bethlehem company took all first four places in that division, the first time this has been accomplished by any single company in the competition's history. Johnstown was tops for the third consecutive year.

The United States has approximately three million more families than in 1940.

Army Announces Need For 4000 More Doctors

CHICAGO, Sept. 23 (AP) — The Army estimates it will need at least 4000 more physicians by next June. The estimate was announced in the journal of the American Medical Association today by Maj. Gen. R. W. Bliss, surgeon general of the Army.

He said the Army is "still very short of specialists, despite our refresher training and our comprehensive postgraduate training."

The Army, he said, cannot depend entirely upon a group of young men, permitted to complete their medical studies during the recent war. He

Tired Kidneys Often Bring Sleepless Nights

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 50 years. Doan's give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

said it is doubtful that the available number of such young doctors will exceed 3000 by June.

The number of deaths per 1,000 persons in the United States fell from 17.2 in 1900 to 10.5 in 1941.
